January 2012: CGM's First Service and Launching of Its Film Ministry: "Reflections of Faith"

CGM's mission vision: To see Jesus, who tasted death for all mankind throughout the world, crowned with God's Grace for God's Glory.

Hebrews 2:9
(paraphrased)

CGGM conducted its first service and CGM began TV studio training.

We traveled to San Diego, California, to film our first TV video, "Reflections of Faith." This is the miracle testimony of Earl Johnson and how the Lord healed him of prostate cancer. This film is on our website, Facebook and YouTube.

The Lord gave us a mandate to air our videos in at least ten cities via TV and other media.

CGM's first film "Reflections of Faith" filmed in San Diego, California, and is the miracle testimony of Earl "Durkee" Johnson. See video at www.cgmissions.com

February 2012

We continued training in film editing at Hawkeye Community College.

CGM's board agreed unanimously to join the Grace Covenant Fellowship International (GCFI) family of churches and the Presiding Prelate, Apostle T.A. Treadwell, graciously accepted our membership.

Apostle Treadwell has extended a proposal to Pastor Charles to be Director of International Missions Ministry on the national governing board of GCFI and its churches.

CGM attended a weekend of services at GCFI's Pastors and Leaders Conference in Chicago, Illinois, held at Performing Christ Church.
